Mountains to Coast Travel

Welcome / about

Mountains to Coast Travel specializes in group trips throughout Latin America, in tune with local cultures and the natural environment.

Central and South America are full of wonderful destinations, and we invite you to consider our carefully-planned excursions, balancing adventure and relaxation, mountains and coasts.

Mountains to Coast Travel was created for travellers and explorers looking for meaningful experiences — the kind shaped by nature, warm moments, and a touch of adventure. Whether you're seeking quiet mountain mornings or breezy coastal sunsets, we design journeys that feel personal, grounded, and unforgettable.

Why wait? Book a trip with us now!

Have you wanted to visit a country or region but hesitated because you do not know the language, customs, or security situation? Mountains to Coast Travel is here to make your trips in the Americas a reality. Our expert travel guides will take you to explore some of the most beautiful areas of the region, prioritizing safety and fun. Check out our suggested destinations and our upcoming trips!

About Mountains to Coast Travel

Mountains to Coast trips have:

- An appropriate balance between comfort and environmentally-friendly practices. You will have a lot of fun exploring new places!
- A central respect for the culture we are visiting. Through travel, we learn and can exchange ideas and practices.
- A priority for safety. We know the areas well and will help you avoid foods and situations that may lessen your enjoyment.

Plan Your Trip Now!

Key Destinations:

Central America

Nicaragua:

Guatemala:

Honduras:

Costa Rica:

El Salvador

Meet your guide(s)

Michael and Maria have decades of experience travelling throughout the region, and one or both of them will be delighted to lead your group on an unforgettable trip.

Michael: A fluent Spanish speaker, Michael majored in Latin American Studies and has spent more than two decades traveling in the region, frequenting Central and South American countries for work and pleasure.

Maria: originally from Nicaragua, Maria loves taking people to new places and sharing her culture. Maria has spent most of her life traveling between the United States and Nicaragua, also visiting other countries in Central and South America.

These seasoned guides will keep your trip on track and handle planning, logistics, and the day to day details. Additionally, they will help your group understand and appreciate the culture wherever you find yourself in the region.

Types of trips

Mountains to Coast Travel group trips offer:

- Custom Itineraries — Tailored routes and excursions
- Adventure Planning — Hiking, scenic drives, outdoor experiences.
- Nature-Focused Getaways — Forest retreats, cabins, coastal escapes.
- Coastline Retreats — Relaxing, scenic, ocean-inspired travel and relaxation.

If you have a ready-to-travel group of family and friends, we can work with you to design a trip based on your specific interests and desires. For example, you can choose from a menu of options of cities, mountainous areas, beaches and coastal zones, and other sites to visit; likewise, you can choose your level of luxury. Minimum numbers in a given group apply.

For our public group trips, we detail the itinerary and you can simply sign up to go. Minimum number of individuals also applies.

Group Travel

- Established dates on the calendar
- Minimum (and maximum) number of participants
  - If not reached, travel will be canceled, deposit fully refunded
- Fixed itinerary, with free time and flexibility built in
- Most costs included, varies from trip to trip
  - What is included and not included will be clearly spelled out
  - Typically, most meals are not included, depending on the trip
- One or two guides, depending on the size of the group

[see example of a group trip itinerary]

Personal travel options

1. Family / friend trips: Bring your group of five or more, and we will design a trip of your dreams and choosing. We can work with you to find:
    a. The optimal season and dates
    b. Precise destinations and excursions tailored for your group
    c. Hotels and transportation based on your preference and style
    d. Provide a personal guide to accompany the group

[AI can only do so much when planning a trip; work with the travel professionals who have been to the locations, speak the language, appreciate the culture, and prioritize a sense of fun!]

[Example–Nicaragua]

2. Individual, couple, smaller groups:
    a. If guide is desired for a smaller group, we can discuss options

Value Added: Mountains to Coast (MtC) guides speak Spanish and English and are intimately familiar with local cultures of our destination countries. We will help ensure that your travel is safe and enjoyable!